when it comes to images we are all animists deep down we all know that images can at least potentially be alive or come to life nowadays we may tend to rationalize our ingrained animism and explain it away as a mere projection only happening in the space between image and viewer in the middle ages however imagery made enthusiastic use of magical miraculous and mechanical means of animation empowered and ensouled by both natural and supernatural principles of life this animist book investigates magic miracles and mechanics as motors of animation and seeks to understand the living image in solidarity with medieval experience rather than dismissive alienation of it effigies did bleed weep or lactate either through divine intervention or through hydraulic machinery statues did move or speak either as demonic oracles or as talking heads with implanted speaking tubes marvels made by magic or by miracles were real as real as the wonders of physical mechanics moving bodily matter we just need to look and listen more carefully to comprehend these fluid realities even when especially when they challenge our received worldview animation was by no means uncontested or uncontradicted but even its stiffest critics knew that gods and demons could intervene in inanimate matter to set it in motion to speak in tongues and exude the liquids of life
